After-School Fun

After-School Recreation Club (ASRC)

The After-School Recreation Club at Haynes Community Center will provide developmentally appropriate programming for school-age children. This will be done through recreational and educational activities that will enhance the participants existing skills while introducing and encouraging new interests and activities. We will provide transportation from school to Haynes Community Center. Snack will be provided during the hours of operation. Students are rewarded for doing homework assignments (homework help will be available), reading for enjoyment, reading to others, and good deeds done in the center and park. The ASRC will also integrate field trips, guest speakers, and frequent trips to the city's libraries, the ASRC will complement the Rio Rancho Public Schools calendar and extended care will be available during most school breaks. Services will not be provided on non-scheduled school closures.
